

Emeritus Professor Rosalind Croucher AM President

SECOND YEAR OF TERM

'Good relationships and open doors are absolutely crucial for us to be able to play the role of trusted adviser to its fullest—to be the devil's advocate and at times to be the 'devil's blowtorch', you need to have a respected seat at the table.'

TERM GOALS

Effectively lead and manage the internal and external governance of the Commission

Advance the Commission's relationship with key stakeholders including Commonwealth Government and Parliament

Progress the role and leadership of the Commission as an independent statutory agency and as Australia's National Human Rights Institution

Foster and lead a positive and collegiate Commission and organisational culture

Promote a community of understanding human rights and build an Australian culture of rights-mindedness
