

Mental Health Council of Australia

PROMOTING SUPPORTIVE WORKPLACES
FOR PEOPLE WITH MENTAL ILLNESS
EMPLOYER FORUMS

Report to the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations

4 August 2005

CONTENTS

	Page
1.0 Executive Summary	1
2.0 Background	2
2.1 Reforms to Disability Support Pension: ‘Welfare to Work’ Package
2.2 Government Strategies
2.3 Mental Health – the Role of the MHCA and the Employer Forums
3.0 Statement of the Problem	3
3.1 The Problem
4.0 Key Issues Surrounding the Problem	3
4.1 Mental Illness as a Disability
4.2 Society, the Workplace and Mental Illness
4.3 Specific Barriers to Employment
5.0 Suggestions for Increasing Employer Demand	7
5.1 Leadership
5.2 Marketing and Promoting Change
5.3 Educational Strategies
5.4 An Integrated Network Providing Information and Support for Employing People with Mental Illness
5.5 Financial Incentives and Assistance
5.6 Legislation
5.7 Structural Reforms
6.0 Recommendations	11
7.0 Appendices
Appendix 1 Job Accommodation Network Issues
Appendix 2 JAN Questionnaire
Appendix 3 Summary of Presentations
Appendix 4 Summary of Participant’s Evaluation
Appendix 5 Participant Evaluation Questionnaire
Appendix 6 Workgroup Discussion Issues
Appendix 7 List of Participants

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

This publication has been funded by the Commonwealth of Australia (Commonwealth) however the information contained in the report has been prepared by the Mental Health Council of Australia (MCHA) and represents the views of the MCHA.

The Commonwealth accepts no responsibility for the accuracy, currency or completeness of this information. Additionally, the Commonwealth disclaims all liability to any person, arising directly or indirectly from any person taking or not taking any action based upon, whether wholly or partially, any information presented in the report. Furthermore, the Commonwealth does not endorse this information nor does it necessarily reflect the views or policy of the Commonwealth (including the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations).